

Friendly Little Creatures!

no.1 The New God

DIY paper art inspired by an esoteric & ancient European folk tradition.

Fun Fact:
The New God was once worshipped in a dark forest of strange beasts.

Fun Fact:
Preferred offerings
are snacks and gin.

Fun Fact:
Some villages, despite years of Christianization, still celebrate the New God at their spring festivals
by making elaborate costumes.

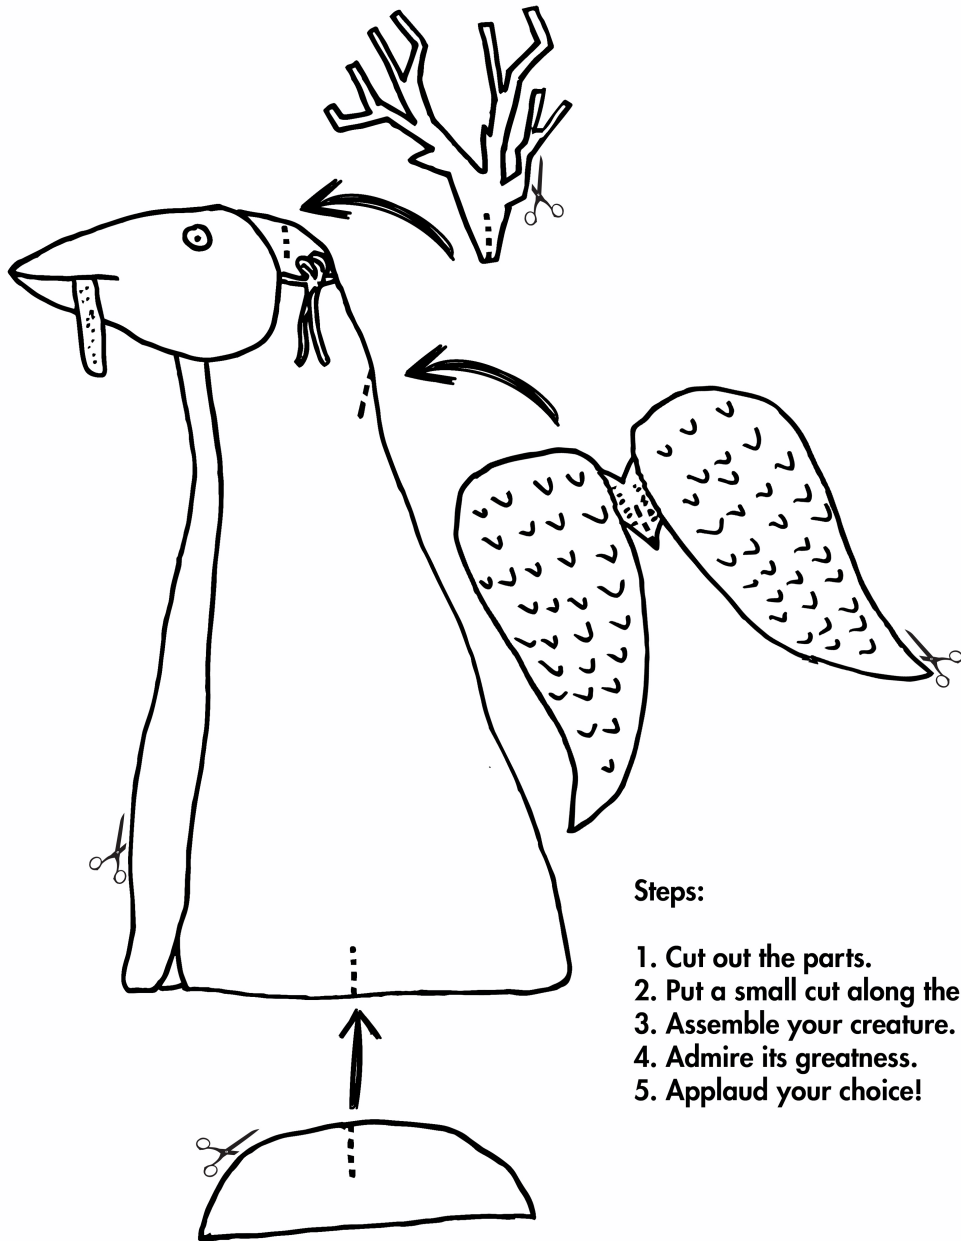

Fun Fact:
On the longest night
of deep winter,
the New God will visit
the caves of its forbears for a party.

Colour it. Cut it out. Build it. Collect them all.

Not sure what to do?
Assembled creature on back.

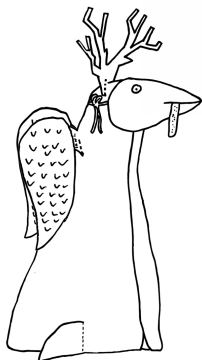

Friendly Little Creatures!

Need a little back story?
In Bavaria, they are called Wolpertingers.
In the mysterious wilds around the world,
they go by many other names.
They are all friendly little creatures!

Steps:

1. Cut out the parts.
2. Put a small cut along the dotted lines.
3. Assemble your creature.
4. Admire its greatness.
5. Applaud your choice!

Assembled sculpture.
